Your graduation is the accomplishment of an important step in your journey through life. The task of assisting to develop your skills and traits that will be beneficial to you in life has been an easy one for your teachers because of your co-operative attitude. Congratulations, good health, and success to you.

CHARLES E. BLEILER,

Administrators

Your graduation is not freedom from your responsibilities, but rather is an increase. Your burden will be increased over and over again. Accept the challenge of the future as you have the challenge of the past and you can always walk with your head held high.

CHARLES W. COLLINS,
Principal

Your happy days as students at Everett High have come to an end, but the lessons taught to and learned by you should always be a part of your life. May God's blessings and good luck go hand and hand with you through life.

Class History

*This outstanding Class of '63
Will now present its history,
Four memorable years of study and work,
Which we always tried to shirk.
The pains of homework and shouts of laughter,
Never to be forgotten in the hereafter.*

September 1959 and there comes upon the scene an outstanding class of freshmen at the Parlin Junior High School. They promptly elect James Agnetta their leader and Ann Murray as his "right-hand man" as Vice President.

We quickly gained fame by garnering the Junior High School Championship of the state in football. Here we had our first glimpse of the efforts of the trio of Cannatelli, Green, and Leo. Marie Caiazzo's first Parlin cheerleaders whooped our basketball team into the Junior High School Tech Tourney Championship, thanks to Jerry Napoli's last minute winning basket. We made it three in a row by having our baseball team Champions.

We had a taste of our first Dramatic efforts and the great triumph of Cheryl Butt in the Oratorical Contest. Joe Harrington and Charlie Button were the Science Award winners. Even our social life took shape as we showed our dancing talent at the "afternoon" Spring Hop. Parlin Day and we had fifteen recipients of the coveted Parlin "P". Then followed the announcement of the winners of Elks Fidelity Award, The Rotary Award, and the Carl Stein Award.

Slowly but all too soon passed these days until the time came to gather our pens and pencils together in preparation for the exodus to the promised land across the street.

September came and we arrived with fear and trepidation, but with a great determination to correct the faults of the high school. We searched high and low for the elevator to take us to the pent-house swimming pool and did a thousand other stupid things under the guidance of the upperclassmen. We were no different from any previous sophomore class. How we longed for the silence of our old corridors and the melodious snarls of those important traffic officers. What a mess!

For some reason our illustrious past had no effect on the conduct of Everett High. We needed representation, so we elected Bobby Leo, President; Lenny Cannatelli, Vice President; Angela Ragucci, Secretary; and Lorraine Sampson, Treasurer. Now we were ready to take over the salvation of the school. What a start! First we had a fire in the science lab which created havoc and gave us a day off. Then came the food strike which almost cost us our spacious and luxurious dining lounge. Our Council members, Maureen Dunn, Jackie Freedman, and Joc Harrington soon squared things away in this respect in short order.

Cannatelli, Green, and Leo continued their exploits

on the football field and Bobby Leo received All-Scholastic honors and the Jeweler's Trophy. Alan Abkowitz wowed them with his ability in the lead of "The Gondoliers" and the Dramatic Club put on a tremendous performance in "Arsenic and Old Lace." Who can forget Cheryl Butt and Diane Vagramian holding us spellbound in the Oratorical contest. Betwixt and between times we watched basketball games, hockey games, baseball games, and track meets. At night we managed to attend many of the dances and other school functions. By the way, we did a little studying now and then to take our minds off our troubles.

In no time we were thrust into the maelstrom of junior activities. Bobby Leo was re-elected President; Silvio Albano, Vice President; Marie Caiazzo, Secretary; and Lorraine Sampson, Treasurer. Our choice in the school Council was Jackie Freedman, Barbara Monahan, Sally Stuart, and Joe Harrington as Vice Chairman.

Our football team landed the G.B.L. and Class A Championship and we were invited to participate in the Orange Bowl game in Miami, Florida. We would never have made it without those great members of the Junior Class. The names of Leo, Green, Cannatelli, and Agnetta rang out far and wide. Many of the class went to the game by bus, car, train, and plane. It was a game and an experience never to be forgotten.

Bob Leo was named as a Schoolboy All-America back and was high scorer for the state. Jim Agnetta won the Outstanding Lineman Award, and Len Cannatelli received the Jeweler's Award.

We were by no means limited to sports in our abilities as was seen in the sell-out presentation of the play "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis" starring Dave DeOme, Paul Giacobbe, Diane Vagramian, and our "good buddy", Lenny Cannatelli. The Gilbert and Sullivan took the school by storm with their presentation of "Sweethearts." Rosemarie Lemole did a great job in the lead aided by that versatile lad, Cannatelli.

Time seemed to speed a little faster this year as the basketball and hockey seasons came and went and the spring season rolled into sight. We attended most of the functions, but not with the same novelty as last year.

The night of April sixth was the highlight of our social year. Bali Hi was the theme of our Junior Prom. Joc Harrington, Jackie Freedman, and Barbara Monahan and the entire decorating committee worked so hard they were almost too tired to dance that night. Without a doubt it was the most outstanding work of art ever seen in the history of Junior Proms. Here, amid this regal splendor, girls were transformed into beautiful young ladies resting on the arms of knee-shaking young men. To many, this was the first formal affair of their lives and they were nervous; to all, it was a most wonderful and enjoyable evening. Suzanne Cantone, the Queen, was the last thing in charm as she danced with King Jim DeFeo.

Cheryl Butt and Rich Arakalian were the winners of the Oratorical Contest, while Joe Harrington was the recipient of the Harvard Book Award. The seniors left in June and we ruled the roost.

During the summer we had our pictures taken and now we were certain we were seniors. In a very spirited battle, Hank Doherty was nosed out for the presidency by Bobby Leo. Silvio Albano was re-elected Vice President; while we chose Angela Ragucci as Secretary, and Lorraine Sampson remained as Treasurer. Our Council, with Joe Harrington as Chairman, was elected and we were ready to go places.

Most of our great Orange Bowl team had returned, and under the leadership of "Tank" Agnetta we again went undefeated and won the G.B.L. and Class A title of the state. This year the team received an educational trip to our National Capital. Anette Viscione was our football Queen, and a very popular one too.

A great deal of rivalry was found in the election of the yearbook staff. Candid pictures became a part of our lives and time flew out the window. Santa Claus came and went and we were in the middle of the basketball season. Richie Green was a standout performer and did a fine job as captain. Our hockey team put on a great show as usual under the leadership of Billy Berglund, the best goalie in the league.

The night we chose the Queen of the Yearbook and her Court of Honor was another night that was to be remembered as the judges were at their wits end in making the decision. The Waltz King and Queen brought back memories of the fun our mothers and fathers must have had in "the good old days."

In quick order came the presentations of the Gilbert and Sullivan, the Dramatic Club, and the Oratorical Contest. Then the realization truly struck us that it was just about over with.

Our final social fling was the Senior Ball. This was a time never to be forgotten. The dance, and the dinner afterward, and the return home in the wee hours of the morning. This was the real climax and conclusion to our days as students in Everett High. Happy days, very happy days; we were youth without a worry. Backward, turn backward, O Time, in your flight, Make me a child again just for tonight. This cannot be. We must keep going down the pathway of life with a smile of satisfaction for the things we've done so well, for the friends we hold so dear, and for the MEMORIES which will be ours forever.

Meet the Champs

The dawn of the 1962 football season at Everett brought with it the mirage of the championship team of the previous year. We knew that graduation had left huge gaps in our line but that our backfield was in great shape. Lack of manpower could prove to be a hindrance but over-confidence was a greater obstacle we must hurdle.

Head Coach Sarno and his able assistants, Leo and Romboli, set to work with great vigor and plugged each hole in the dike to the best of their abilities.

Our opener with Newton saw Captain "Tank" Agnetta and his Crimson Horde ready, willing, and able. "Lenny" Cannatelli was to see very limited action due to a pre-season accident to his face. We rose to the occasion and unceremoniously dumped the Garden City boys by a score of 30 to 14. "Jim" Brennan showed that he was more than able to play the fullback spot and tore the opponents' line to shreds. "Bobby" Leo was back in form as he scored twice, Wilcox scored on a pass from Green, and Green scored alone.

Against a very stubborn Quincy team, "Richie" Green thru bombs all over the field and had the game in hand at all times. Again "Tank" and his tractors did a bang-up job and left nothing to be wanted. Again it was Leo, Green, and Cannatelli doing the scoring for the Big Red Champs, as we came out on top 22-0.

Our next outing against a good Arlington team saw disaster almost take over the reins of our great team. Early in the game, our All-American Schoolboy Back, "Bobby" Leo, received a severe shoulder injury which was to side-line him for not only the rest of the game, but every game except the final one. "Lenny"

Cannatelli was still not up to par after his injury and this placed the burden right on "Richie" Green. We were rattled by this turn of events and had trouble trying to get together in any series of concerted drives. We did manage to score once on a great Green effort but this was not enough. The Spy Ponders also came up with one and the game ended in a 6-6 tie.

At this point of the season it was a tough blow to lose the services of Leo, but we pulled ourselves together, worked a little harder, and did not panic. We were fortunate in finding we had ability in such boys as Grasso, O'Donnell, and Puopolo who spelled each other along with Tatarouns and Egan.

Medford turned out in full force to be the underdog team determined to tip us over without our star in the lineup. The great work of Cannatelli, Brennan, and Green almost made us forget about Bobby as we fought them to a standstill. Coach Sarno cleared the bench in our 34-0 win.

Somerville turned out to be no match for us even though we were a bit slow in starting. We opened up with Green tossing passes to Wilcox and then Cannatelli would scoot as if "Old Nick" had an eye on him. When the mud of battle had ended, our bench was again empty and we rested easy on our 30-0 win.

Nashua High is very happy to see Cannatelli graduate. Each year he has made this game a big nightmare for them. Even though they concentrated on him, again he ran wild. When our other backs were stopped and our passing attack bogged down, the little man ran right into the ground. We had our work cut out for us all afternoon but came out on top by a score of 14-6.

The Golden Tornado of Malden, our ancient rival, set their guns for us the following week. Agnetta's aggressive aggregation of groundhogs argued this point all afternoon and made their line look like a sieve. Green's grand galaxy of gruesome groundgainers galloped gloriously all afternoon. When the final whistle blew, the tornado was but a puff of wind as the score board showed Everett 40-Malden 0.

Thanksgiving Day dawned miserable and wet. Rain and mud, mud and rain! A continual downpour, a packed stadium, and Chelsea High. This was a day fit for neither man nor beast but this did not keep us from going on with the game.

This marked the return of Leo to our lineup and it was the hope of all that he had retained some of his old time form. We soon found out as he took the ball on the first play and did not stop until he was into the end zone. Before the fans were back in their seats after the next kickoff, we recovered a Chelsea fumble. Play number two and the scared rabbit was off again for touchdown number two. It seemed as if this would go on all morning long but we had to be satisfied to see him score four touchdowns on five carries. This was about as good as anyone could do. Green scored and then we emptied our bench again. In the second half the score mounted and again we sent every player into the game as we wound up on the long end of a 50-0 game.

This was the end of the season and it again gave us the Class A State Championship for the second straight year. Our winning was not an individual effort by any means but an all-out effort on every boy's part.

We would be remiss if we failed to say we are not going to miss the great leadership of Captain Jim Agnetta and his great team. The names of Leo, Canatelli, and Green will go down in the history of the greats of Everett High. Those boys who were not in the limelight will be remembered too for their greatness.

May your futures be as bright as your smiles in victory and may your reverses be fewer than your losses. Live your lives in the future with the same manliness and gentlemanliness you have lived on the football field and the world is bound to be yours. May success and Good Luck follow you all the days of your lives.

The Squad

The Season

The pre-season hopes and plans of Coach Putnam were on the bright side after a couple of lean seasons. The varsity squad showed the return of a few veterans and the faces of new talent. If they could be molded into a smooth unit, we would have a good season.

On December 11, Captain Richie Green led his cohorts into battle against Reading High in a non-league game. We showed great promise against poor opposition and won handily 65-29. Every man on the squad hit the scoring column.

We got off to a flying start in the league season by downing a fair Medford team 56-47. The scoring of Green and Grasso with nineteen and eleven points showed we did have some punch.

Against Revere, Green continued his great work and scored twenty four points followed by Siudot and Bartlett with fifteen and thirteen each in our 73-40 romp.

A good Malden team was our next real challenge and we blew hot-and-cold but held on to win 75-71. Green garnered thirty-one points while Siudot, Gianatassio, and Bartlett scored thirteen each.

Against non-league Winchester we went down to defeat for the first time in a very poorly played game 58-47. Green and Bartlett had their eyes and hit for sixteen and twelve points.

We made every mistake in the book against North Quincy and were dumped 55-47. We dropped in twenty points in the first period and forgot we still had three to play. We tried to come back in the final period but the damage was done.

Archbishop Williams High made our New Year's celebration miserable by making it three defeats in a row by a score of 64-61. After a close first half, we went ahead in the third period and then blew it in the last. Green and Siudot were high point men with twenty-five and sixteen each.

Chelsea High and that Perkins boy! This lad only dropped in forty-nine points against us! That was the story of our 72-71 loss. Again we led going into the final few minutes only to lose it at the last moment.

We hit the victory trail again against our old rival Somerville. In this game we reached our potential and beat the favorites 67-61. Spada controlled the boards in fine style and this was the difference.

A weak Lowell team bowed to us by a 71-45 score in a very uninteresting game. Green sunk twenty-six points while Gianatassio had twenty-one.

We concluded the first half of the season by defeating Quincy by a score of 73-63. Green again was high with twenty-eight points and Siudot with twenty-one.

In our return game with Medford we did a complete about-face and did everything wrong. We were drubbed by an inferior team 62-49. This was our answer to blowing hot and cold.

We again beat the Beach City boys of Revere in our return engagement 84-64. Bartlett and Spada were standouts in our win.

The return game with Malden was a complete rout as we went down to defeat 77-44. Without a doubt this was our worst game of the year to date.

We revenged our early loss to North Quincy by a count of 59-46. We did not play our best but did show we learned by our previous mistakes, not to take this team lightly. Siudot, Bartlett, and Gianatassio continued their good work.

A very good New Bedford team came to town and gave us a lesson on how to handle a basketball by belting us to the tune of 73-57. Bartlett was the only one able to do anything steady for us in our losing cause.

We came back in no uncertain fashion against Chelsea, much to our enjoyment. Jerry Napoli came into his own and dropped in fifteen points besides playing a great floor game. Green, Siudot, and Bartlett also played a great game in winning this one.

The Season

Coach Henry Schlegel had no cause to be too optimistic over the outlook for the 1963 hockey season. The early practice sessions showed very little in the way of experience.

Captain Bill Berglund, the best goalie in the league, led his sextette into battle against an experienced Quincy team in the opener. We did show promise in this game and gave a good accounting of ourselves. Stevenson dropped in our first goal of the season on an assist from Russell. Later in the game Dooley, the Mighty Midget, let fly and made it two points for us. This was not enough to offset their three goals and we went down to our first defeat.

We managed to get off to a flying start against North Quincy when Bob Russell broke away on the face-off and drove in for our first goal in just twenty-four seconds. From here on it was a nip-and-tuck game all the way. The North boys came up with a goal late in the game and we wound up in a 1-1 deadlock. Graf looked good in this game as he teamed with Dooley time and again.

We finally broke into the win column against a strong Christopher Columbus team. Gerry Graf did a masterful job in back-handing one into the goal from a difficult angle. Columbus tied it up later but we were not to be denied as Bob Russell swooped in on a loose puck and deftly slammed it home for the winning tally. Billy Berglund performed in a fashion that was outstanding.

Revere had been building for the past couple of years and this was to be their big season. We were undaunted by their undefeated record and went after them from the opening whistle. We went ahead first on a great play by Russell on a pass from Howard. This ended our scoring as the big rugged line of our opponents wore us down and we finally were edged by a score of 3-1.

Against Chelsea, Berglund had his first shutout of the season. His play in the net left nothing to be desired. The rest of the team took heart from this and went on to play one of their best games of the year. Both Russell and Stevenson scored twice in our 4-0 win.

Our second shutout of the season followed fast upon the first as we tipped over a young and inexperienced Don Bosco team the following week. The scoring was split up among Bobby Russell, John Howard, and Eddie Dooley. The entire team played well and seemed to mold into a smoother aggregation.

We came up against a real tough nut to crack in Malden High, and this was a ding-dong affair from start to finish. We took turns in scoring with Russell coming through with the first for us; and then, after Malden tied it up, Merenda came into his own and garnered his first score of the year. Malden tied it up in the last few minutes and we wound up in a stalemate 2-2.

In our return go with Quincy we started off like a house afire on a fast goal by Bob Russell, but from there on we fell apart. This was our worst game of the season as we were unable to untrack ourselves all night and lost by a score of 5-1.

The following week we reversed our form and came back strong against North Quincy High. This turned out to be the highest scoring game of the season to date as we came out on top 5-3. Howard and Dooley scored twice and Merenda once.

Against Christopher Columbus we again did an about-face and reverted back to a night of horror. We suffered our first shutout of the season by a score of 4-0. This was the same team we had beaten earlier in the season but our brand of hockey was the different feature. Bill Berglund did a wonderful job in holding down the score as low as it was.

The return bout with Revere was not on a par with our first outing and we did not show the drive and spirit we were capable of. The result was that we again lost by a score of 4-1. Howard was the only one able to break loose for a score for us.
